REMBAUM HANAU British and French designers Sharon Rembaum and Cécile Hanau debuted their 1,200-square-foot, European-inspired vintage furniture gallery and design studio, Rembaum Hanau, in the heart of Tribeca. Providing bespoke art, antique and design curation services, as well as full scope interior design services, the design studio showcases a curated collection of iconic furniture from the 20th century, as well as contemporary European, American and Japanese pieces by esteemed artists like Alexandra Kohl and Richard Haining. Rembaum is no stranger to high-design elements, and, specializing in European decor, Hanau brings a tasteful eye, which she developed through work with architects and private clients. Together, their appreciation for European design has translated into Rembaum Hanau's story-rich and unconventional furniture, lighting and interiors. 129 Duane St., rembaumhanau.com
